Fremont Welcomes Thai Royalty

Her Royal Highness Princess Soamsawali Mahidol of Thailand Returns to Fremont

Fremont, CA – November 18, 2013 – Today, Her Royal Highness Princess Soamsawali Mahidol of Thailand and her royal entourage will spend the day at Fremont's Senior Center.

HRH Princess Soamsawali is renowned for her passion for public health and social welfare and supports a multitude of Thai Red Cross Society programs.

Her visit to the Senior Center will be packed with exciting activities for the seniors to enjoy. The agenda is catered to the Princess's love for music and dancing. In addition to ballroom dancing, there will be Zumba, tai chi classes and a traditional Thai dance performance.

This is the Princess's second trip to the City of Fremont. She first visited the Fremont Senior Center back in 1996, where she reportedly had such a wonderful time that she had to come back for more.

Clearly, Fremont is a great place to be, for royals, businesses and residents alike. During the royal visit, Mayor Bill Harrison will present the Princess with a Key to the City as a symbol that the door to Fremont is always open.
